SPEEDY TRIAL FOR RAIDER BECKER. WHITMAN SAYS, DESPITE FIGHT TO DELAY

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Totorio

"Circulation Books Open to All."

Consright, 1912, by The Press Publishing

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1912.

14 PAGES

PRICE ONE CENT.

HOME V. HERE HUSBAND DIED

Oil Magnate's Widow Ordered Private Car Attached to White Mountain Express.

FORESAW HER DEATH

Nurses Attending Her at Bretton Woods With Her When End Came.

Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, widow of the Standard Oil magnate, died suddenly today while being brought to this city from Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, on the private car Sunset, attached to the White Mountain Express.

Mrs. Rogers sank into a comatese state at midnight and the two nurses in attendance upon her believe that morning. No physician attended Mrs. Rogers from the time she left Bretton Woods at 9 o'clock last night until she died. Efforts to have doctors meet the irain fulled. Death was due to heart family with the widow when she oled, Her three married stepdaughters are in Europe and her stepson, Henry H. Rog-ers jr., left New York on an automobile located when his mother's body was taken to her town house, No. 3 East Seventy-eighth street, following the arrival of the White Mountain Express

Two trained nurses, Charles Benner, lawyer of No. 100 Broadway, Mrs. lerson, her housekeeper, and a maid stere with the dying woman when she was carried into the car Sunset and died. It was Mrs. Rogers's wish that no doctor accompany her as she was

FOR IRVING CHILDS. BELOVED 'BAD BOY'

MILLIONAIRE'S WIDOW

WHO WAS STRICKEN

DEAD ON TRAIN.

Death Ends Career on "Gay Wreck of Cleverest Bunco White Way" of Eccentric Young Heir to $700,000.

SQUANDERED FORTUNE, SAYS HE WAS ROBBED.

Crowding Life-Time Into His Twenty-Six Years.

There is real sorrow in the nighttervention, or even death, takes away "drunk." "good thing." Childs would have not inherited $700,000 from his millionhands. With the age of a man and in years gone by was his "com the itinerant hotel chaplain. Miss West- game. fall was the daughter of A. S. Westfall HE JUST MADE RUBES' MONEY of Flatbush, a wealthy man and a

BROADWAY MOURNS "GRAND CENTRAL

Man, at 75, Jollies Magistrate.

Millionaire's Son Dies After Long Thought Dead, He Declares Rubes Aren't So Easy as in His Heydey.

"Grand Centra Pete,i" whom the police living colony of Broadway for the long ago chough; was dead, has not feath of Irving W. Childs, who died been dead, but sleepling. Peter Lake is Wednesday, at the age of twenty-six, his name, he is now seventy-five years It is not the grief which Brondway old, and this morning he was in Jeffer-been beloved on Broadway if he had him in the battered old hulk, with his aire father, William Henry Harrison although cleanly shaven with the excepof thrown the money away with both tion of the little gray mustache which his great fortune, he combined a clown- the great bunco games worked at the youthfulness, a gay recklessness, time. It was more than five years ago a baby-like faith in adventure, mystery that "Grand Central Pete" stood in the and romance and an Alladin-like luck same court and was sent to the work-which gave Broadway a good healthy house by Magistrate Corrigan for dislaugh every time he appeared on the jaded, sensation-weary street.

Childs was married to Miss Gertrude the prince of Wallingfords in his day. Westfall, a charming girl, even youngen should be sent to the workhouse for than himself, five days after he became being drank and disorderly. It was too of age, by the Rev. Henry M. Warren, much, and the "prince" retired from the except the temperament of young ing the game for half a century. He usband whose stunts around the Grand Central depot.

QUIT THEM.

CHILDS SACRIFICED HIS LIFE has please." And the dollar would be He wrested a million from the ranges BIGGEST MAN IN WOOL INDUS. Will be tought by the action of the will not be will not b

The state and the control and

RICH ADVENTURER WHO DIED PLAYING HANDBALL. WOOLEN TRUST AFTER A LIFE IN WILDS, ESCAPING PERILS,

E. K. Bartlett, Who Won Fortune in Arizona Wilds, Expires at N. Y. A. C.

HEAD, INDICTED

Millionaire William M. Wood Accused in the "Planting" of Explosive at Lawrence.

TO BREAK MILL STRIKE.

Surrenders to Boston Police and Gives Bail in Court-Another Magnate Named.

BOSTON, Aug. 30,-William M. Wood president of the American Woollen Company, one of the largest textile companies in the world, and uniquely prominent as the leading spirit in the textile industry of the United States, to-day surrendered himself to Inspector Thomas J. Lynch of Police Headquarters, who read to Wood an indictment charging conspiracy in connection with the planting" of dynamite in the homes of strikers at Lawrence last winter for the alleged purpose of injuring the cause of peratives who were on strike there. He promptly furnished $5.000 bail to keep from going to lall with Dennis J. Colthe time Wood's indictment was returned to Judge Pratt. Mr. Wood did not appear disturbe during the proceedings. At the conclusion of his conference with Assistant District-Attorney McIsaac he made the lins, the Cambridge dog fancier, who was indicted and arrested yesterday at

"Of course, I am greatly surprised by the action of the Grand Jury. I can not conceive what information could have been presented to the jurors which in any way connected me with the so-called dynamite plot. I certainly had no con-nection with it, and this fact will be fully established at the proper time to the estisfaction of the public and even the District-Attorney. Beyond this

BECKER TO BE TRIED AS DYNAMITER SEPT. 11 AS FIRST OF ACCUSED MURDERERS

> District - Attorney Whitman Declares Evidence in Hand and Not Yet Made Public Is Sufficient to Convict Raider.

> TWO INDICTED GUNMEN EXPECTED TO CONFESS.

Dago Frank" and "Whitey Lewis" Said to Be Ready to Bargain for Clemency.

The promise was made at the District-Attorney's office to-day that Lieut. Charles Becker will be called to trial for the murder of Herman Rosenthal on Sept. 11th. It is the intention of Mr. Whitman to make the trial of Becker the opening of the prosecutions in the Rosenthal case and the work of getting ready the evidence is being pushed with all

Mr. Whitman has gone to his summer home in Vermont and will not be back until Monday. Upon his return he expects to find the Becker case well in hand for trial. He has said that he could go into any way connected me with the so-called court at any time after the indictment with the testimony he has gathered-a great deal of which has not been revealed to the public.

With the assistance of Justice Goff, who will preside at the trials, Mr. Whitman does not expect much difficulty in enforcing his desire for bringing the guilt or innocence of Becker to a speedy issue. He is con-The maximum penalty in the event of fident enough in his case to venture to try Becker before putting any of is three the actual murderers before a jury. way friendships. The persons of both your trunk to the hotel? Name, pleases he played handball at the New York correction on each of six counts contained in the indictment.

The determination of the District-Atsectal will be fought by the afformacy for the WILL ATSECTION OF THE DISTRICT AND ADDRESS OF THE DIS years imprisonment in the House of The determination of the District-At-1 cealed weapon, in violation of the